

APPRECIATING LITERATURE

Literature has often been regarded as a difficult and baffling subject area. At the same time, many are aware that upon exploration and discovery, literature can open up a world of intensely satisfying reading experiences. This course allows one to better gain an introductory insight to the appreciation of literature.

Our Objectives

We aim to

- facilitate greater appreciation of literary works
- encourage wider exposure to the world of literary reading

Your Profile

This course is suitable for Secondary School students and anyone who wishes to explore and enjoy an introduction to the world of literature.

Your Results

At the end of this course, you will learn to

- identify and appreciate the unique qualities of the different genres: poetry, prose and drama
- use simple tools of reading and appreciation in order to delve deeper into a literary work
- widen your repertoire of literary reading experiences

Our Methods

We strongly believe that literature is best appreciated through personal involvement with the texts and through fun discovery of the distinctive qualities of literature.

Our Trainers

Our trainers are all qualified and highly experienced lecturers from SP.
