APPLIED DRAMA & PSYCHOLOGY
CREATIVE WRITING FOR TV & NEW MEDIA
MEDIA & COMMUNICATION

With SP, it's So Possible
I CAN TAKE MY STORY TO A HIGHER LEVEL

As a CASS grad, you will stand out and be ready to take on the world. Here’s why:

• Singapore’s most comprehensive mass communication diploma, with emphasis on producing online content and managing social media to executing multi-market campaigns – Diploma in Media and Communication (DMC).

• Asia’s only inter-disciplinary diploma that combines applied drama and psychology – Diploma in Applied Drama and Psychology (DADP).

• Singapore’s only writing diploma – Diploma in Creative Writing for TV and New Media (DVTM).

• Innovative learning spaces, such as DMC’s The Agency, which simulates the workings of a real-life communication agency; DVTM’s The Writers’ Room, a unique space for dreaming and writing; and DADP’s BlackBox, the space for drama.

• Exciting internships with major media companies, advertising agencies, public relations firms, and private and government organisations.

• Exclusive and prestigious Batey Talent Programme for DMC students.
Wherever you look, CASS alumni have pursued further education or fulfilling careers in public relations, advertising, marketing, broadcasting, filmmaking, arts education, community development and social sciences.

Our Alumni

DIPLOMA IN APPLIED DRAMA AND PSYCHOLOGY ALUMNI

DADP alumni include Mark Ng Chung Kit (pictured on the right) and Noor Izzaty Binte Ishak. Mark was awarded the National Arts Council Arts Scholarship (Undergraduate) in 2014 and is currently pursuing a BA (Hons) in Drama at Queen Mary University of London. Izzaty was awarded the MENDAKI Goh Chok Tong Youth Promise Award (Distinction) to pursue a BA (Hons) in Drama, Applied Theatre and Education at the Royal Central School of Speech and Drama, University of London. She is now a community worker with Beyond Social Services.

DIPLOMA IN CREATIVE WRITING FOR TV AND NEW MEDIA ALUMNI

DTVM is just nine years old but some of our alumni are already making their mark. One of them is Wendy Wong Shumin, who was awarded the Media Development Authority Scholarship. She has just completed her degree in Political Science at the National University of Singapore, and is working at Channel NewsAsia as a reporter.

DIPLOMA IN MEDIA AND COMMUNICATION ALUMNI

DMC alumni include Joseph Chua (pictured on the opposite page), who is the Chief Operating Officer of Resn Asia, a creative digital agency and winner of Young Professional of the Year 2010 by the Institute of Advertising Singapore, and Ivan Zeng, Director, Digital Marketing, APAC Regional Marketing, Lego Singapore Pte Ltd.

DMC has a history of graduates who have won prestigious scholarships as well as done well in further studies. Andrew Yee Zi Han topped his cohort at the Nanyang Technological University Wee Kim Wee School of Communication and Information in 2014, winning the Lee Kuan Yew Gold Medal.

You can start working immediately after your diploma as an Advertising Executive, Journalist, Drama Educator or Community Worker, just to name a few career options. You may also pursue further studies in universities locally or overseas. For the latter, some of the popular universities that accept our students, often times with credit exemptions, are Australian National University, University College London, University of Melbourne, University of Sydney, Royal Central School of Speech and Drama, and Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology.

USING STORIES TO TRANSFORM
Do you want to help others share their stories? How can you create transformative encounters when these stories are told? Can stories change lives or influence communities for the better, and if so, how?

The Diploma in Applied Drama and Psychology journeys beyond performance, integrating the tools of drama with an understanding of psychology. The result is a powerful engine for education, social intervention and change.

At DADP, authentic learning means extending the boundaries of the classroom. Your assignments will give you the chance to work with different communities, from children to the elderly.

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS
In this course, you will:
• Draw on the expertise of leading dramatists through our Artist-in-Residence scheme and master classes. Learn from international practitioners in drama/social service/psychology fields.
• Work with communities from a wide range of settings, such as schools and social/community services. Intern with local drama companies, schools, government agencies and social/community service organisations.
• Bring different stories to life in BlackBox, our drama space with unlimited potential to transform itself, its players and its audience.

WHAT THE INDUSTRY SAYS:

DADP is a course which enlightens both the heart and mind through self-reflection and meaningful lessons which, in turn, have a significant impact on our lives. Singapore is in dire need of good arts educators to teach in schools and social welfare associations because it has been recognised that drama is an important pedagogical tool to build a creative and cohesive community.

Mr Kok Heng Leun
Artistic Director, Drama Box

FURTHER STUDIES
You may further your academic pursuits in Theatre Studies, Applied Drama, Psychology, Social Work, Early Childhood/Special Education or Arts and Social Sciences.

DADP graduates are accepted into degree programmes at local and foreign universities. Some of these universities grant generous exemptions and advanced standing to our graduates.

CAREER OPTIONS INCLUDE:
- Drama Educator
- Drama Facilitator
- Assistant Teacher
- Social Work Assistant
- Community Worker
- Psychology Assistant
- Project Coordinator

DADP graduates enjoy immediate employment with organisations in the social/community services, educational services and governmental sectors. Some DADP graduates have been offered prestigious scholarships by the National Arts Council, Yayasan MENDAKI and Nanyang Technological University.

I’ve always been passionate about working with people and youths in particular. DADP provided the framework to curate art with scientific depth. The combination of applied drama and psychology showed me how to engage youths in creative ways in my work as a Training and Development Executive with Halogen Foundation Singapore.

Vanessa Yap Ru
Class of 2013, who is now working as a Training and Development Executive with Halogen Foundation Singapore.
WRITING STORIES THAT INSPIRE
How do words combine with picture, video and sound to make good stories? How will you mesmerise and challenge your audience?

The Diploma in Creative Writing for TV and New Media develops students’ ability to find, shape and realise their stories, fine-tuning them into polished content for various media platforms such as print, television and transmedia.

Students learn to ideate and create stories, put them into words and visuals and present them to the audience. This is done through children’s stories, news articles, documentaries, TV dramas and comedies as well as content for website and mobile applications.

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS
In this course, you will:

• Be inspired. Find your muse in The Writers’ Room, our unique space for dreaming and writing. Through our master classes, network with seasoned journalists, scriptwriters, filmmakers, animators, comic strip artists and other media professionals from Singapore and around the world.

• Leave the classroom. Record your news, drama, comedy, reality show or documentary in a studio setting or the outdoors. Travel overseas to film a documentary as an assignment.

• Pitch your programmes to industry experts and, if selected, watch them come alive on TV.

CREATING STORIES THAT CONNECT
What’s the role of social media like Twitter and Instagram in marketing a product or service? How do you use research to better understand an audience? How does psychology give you an edge?

The Diploma in Media and Communication is a comprehensive mass communication course with emphasis on digital content creation, integrated communications and research. Learn to create brand stories by integrating different marketing communication tools (such as advertising and public relations) and delivering them through different media platforms—print, video, digital media.

At DMC, authentic learning means you get to work closely with our industry partners to nurture your aspirations in the wide spectrum of media and communication. You will also get to apply Singapore Polytechnic’s Design Thinking methodology to real-world projects.

WHAT THE INDUSTRY SAYS:
“We ventured into the exclusive partnership with DMC to bring the corporate world closer to the students, and prepare them for the workforce in industries related to their studies. What impressed me was SP’s Design Thinking pedagogy and the application imparted to students. Every year my teams and I are excited about our internship programme with DMC students. Not only do they inspire us with their passion as new blood for the industry, they also prove to us that they are the talent we need for the eco-system.”

Patricia Goh
Managing Director, Starcom MediaVest Group

“During my three years in DMC, I was given the opportunity to produce short films and partner with non-governmental organization, Migrant Workers’ Centre, to execute social media campaigns. All these realistic working experiences were invaluable and have nurtured my passion for communication.”
