MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dear Students

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to the Singapore Polytechnic (SP). I hope you are looking forward to the start of the course with the Professional and Adult Continuing Education (PACE) Academy at SP. Whether you are a new or returning student, it is my pleasure to welcome you to SP, and thank you for choosing SP.

You have joined the first and foremost Polytechnic in Singapore. Since 1954, SP has educated and trained over 160,000 graduates, who form the core of the Singapore workforce.

You have enrolled into a programme, which has been specially designed for adult learners like yourself. On successful completion of every semester, you will be awarded a certificate in recognition of your accomplishment. When you have completed all the required certificates, you will be eligible for the prestigious award of an SP Post-Diploma/Part-time Diploma.

I am confident you will find your studies with us rigorous but engaging. Our well-qualified and experienced lecturers will work with you to make your learning journey fulfilling and successful. Besides hard work, a key to your successful completion will be managing your time between your work, studies and family.

Once again, on behalf of our faculty and staff, we hope that your experience in SP will be a fruitful one. I wish you every success in your course, and beyond.

Wong Jian Chang

Acting Director

PACE Academy

Singapore Polytechnic

ABOUT PACE

Singapore Polytechnic (SP) was the first polytechnic established in 1954. In 1979, it started to offer Continuing Education and Training (CET) courses to meet the upgrading needs of its growing number of graduates. This expanded later to include CET for all professionals, managers and executives or PMEs. In 2008, the Professional & Adult Continuing Education (PACE) Academy was established to enable SP to support the efforts of the National Productivity and Continuing Education Council (NPCEC) which was mandated to prioritise and champion national productivity initiatives at the sectorial and enterprise levels, develop a comprehensive, first-class national CET system and foster a culture of productivity and continuous learning and upgrading in Singapore.

PACE Academy continues to offer quality multi-disciplinary CET programmes to about 30,000 PMEs over 1,000 courses runs per year. These programmes cater to adult and PMEs who not only may have relevant experience but also varied training needs.

Our Vision

To be Singapore's leading CET Academy transforming adult learners through innovative educational experiences

Our Mission

To offer a variety of relevant courses for adult learners to enhance their employability

You may use the “e-mail Forwarding” feature in iChat email to forward incoming emails to another email account of your choice (e.g. your office email account or your personal email) to avoid missing of important announcements from us. Please refer to how to forward your ichat emails.

You may also like to know how to reset your ichat password.

Please contact SPICE Service Desk if you encountered problem with your account.

3 GENERAL COURSE MATTERS

3.1 PROGRESSION

The course duration and maximum candidature period for the different qualifications are listed as follows:

Qualification	No. of Modular Cert (MC)/Post-Diploma Cert (PDC)	Course Duration	Maximum Candidature Period
Part-time Diploma	5 MCs	2.5 years	5 years
Advanced Diploma	3 to 4 PDCs	1 - 2 years (1 or 2 PDC per semester)	4 years
Specialist Diploma	2 PDCs	1 year	2 years
Diploma (Conversion)	2 PDCs	1 year	2 years

Students will be progressed to the next available MC/PDC at the end of every semester.

However, students who failed any module(s) are required to retake the failed module(s) in the next semester (subject to available vacancy) before they proceed to the next MC/PDC.

There will be no subsidy for the failed module. Students are required to pay full fee for the repeat modules.

Students are required to pass all the prescribed modules in the MC/PDC in order to be awarded with the certificate.

Students are required to pass all the prescribed MCs/PDCs in order to be awarded with the qualification.

3.2 MODULE EXEMPTION

Students may be considered for module exemption based on their prior tertiary qualification (e.g. Diploma, Degree).

Students who wish to apply for module exemption must submit the Module Exemption Application form, before commencement of the new semester. Late application will not be accepted.

Application is on semester basis and not by year, i.e. students should only apply for exemption for the modules taken in the current semester.

Students must continue to attend lessons for all modules pending the outcome of the application. Students will be notified the outcome within 2 calendar weeks of application, for properly completed applications (with necessary attachments). Incomplete applications may experience a delay in the processing time.

Students are only allowed up to a maximum of 50% of all modules in the course. In the event that the student is exempted for all modules in a Module Certificate (MC) / Post Diploma Certificate (PDC). No MC/PDC is issued.

3.3 PAYMENT OF FEES

Students who wish to continue their course of studies are liable to pay their semester course fees before the semester commencement. This applies to company sponsored students too.

Students with outstanding fees due to SP will not be enrolled into the course and shall not be allowed to attend classes. No student will be allowed to admit into the course after the 2nd Academic week.

Students with financial difficulty may refer to section 3.4 Financial Assistance Scheme.

The modes of payment available are SkillsFuture credit, funds in Post-Secondary Education Account (PSEA), e-banking, Visa/MasterCard, NETS or cheque. All payments are to be made in Singapore dollars.

1. SkillsFuture Credit (Applicable to Singapore Citizen only)

This is not applicable to company sponsored students. Please refer here if you wish to pay your course fees using SkillsFuture credit.

2. PSEA (Post-Secondary Education Account) (Applicable to Singapore citizen only)

This is not applicable for company sponsored participants. You may call the Edusave Phone Enquiry System at 6260-0777 to check your PSEA balance. Please click here if you wish to pay your course fees using PSEA.

3. e-Payment using Visa/Master card or internet banking: please follow instructions on the payment email to proceed. We accept Visa & MasterCard only.

4. NETS payment: the daily limit is $2,000 or $3,000, depending on the bank and your personal limit. You can pay at:

You can pay at One Stop Centre.

To apply for the bursary, please submit your application online with all supporting documents (e.g. NRIC, latest payslips) via the Higher Education Bursary Form. Please note that application for the Higher Education Bursary is on a semester basis.

3.5 STUDENT ATTENDANCE

1. Attendance is a key factor in student progression and achievement. Regular attendance and academic achievement are closely linked. Students who actively participate in their learning by attending classes regularly are more likely to enjoy a rewarding experience in which their knowledge, skills and abilities are developed.
2. Students are expected and required to attend all scheduled classes. Students should arrive on time for classes and remain for the duration of the class. Late arrival at, and early departure from, classes is disruptive, discourteous, unprofessional and unfair to other students and lecturers.
3. Please take note of the following:
 - a. A student will be marked absent if he/she is late by more than 15 minutes (e.g. for a 6:30 pm lecture, a student who enters the class after 6:45 pm will be marked absent).
 - b. A student is required to attain at least 50% of the aggregated attendance for lectures, tutorials and practical sessions of a module.
4. A student whose attendance for a module falls below 50% will be allowed to take the semestral examination and be given either a Pass (P) or Fail (F) grade in that module.
5. Please note that if you are sponsored by your company, your company will not be able to claim for absentee payroll if your attendance is below 75%.

3.6 LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Student must attain at least 50% overall attendance for classes.

Student whose attendance for a module falls below 50% will be allowed to take the semestral examination and be given either a Pass (P) or Fail (F) grade in that module. Student whose attendance for a module falls below 50% will not be allowed apply leave of absence from examination.

3.6.1 LEAVE OF ABSENCE FROM ASSESSMENTS/TESTS

With effect from Academic Year 2018/19 Semester 1, Students who are unable to attend classes (include lectures, tutorials and practical sessions, etc.) are NOT required to apply LOA. Students are responsible to ensure they meet the minimum attendance for each module (50% for non-company sponsored students and 75% for company sponsored students). However, students, who are unable to take the Class Assessment (CA)/ Mid Semester Test (MST)/End Semester Test (EST)/Examination, must submit the Leave of Absence (LOA) application with supporting documents via PACE Student Portal within 2 working days.

Only medical certificates issued by medical practitioners registered with the Singapore Medical Council will be accepted. All other medical certificates, for example, those issued by Chinese physicians, are not accepted.

Application for Leave of Absence for personal holiday trips will not be considered.

For SGUnited Skills Programmes, students who are unable to attend classes (include lectures, tutorials and practical sessions, etc.) are NOT required to apply LOA. Students are responsible to ensure they meet the minimum attendance requirement of 75% per month in order to apply for SGUS training allowance.

However, students, who are unable to take the Class Assessment (CA)/ Test, must submit the Leave of Absence (LOA) application with supporting documents using this form within 3 working days. Only medical certificates issued by medical practitioners registered with the Singapore Medical Council will be accepted. All other medical certificates, for example, those issued by Chinese physicians, are not accepted.

Leave of Absence for personal holiday trips will not be considered.

3.6.2 LEAVE OF ABSENCE FROM SEMESTRAL EXAMINATION

1. A student who is absent without a valid reason from the semestral examination for a module shall be considered to have failed the module.
2. If a student has a valid reason for missing the semestral examination, he can write in to ptenquiry@sp.edu.sg to apply for leave of absence (LOA) from semestral examination.
3. Where the reason for absence from the semestral examination is known beforehand, the student must submit his application for leave of absence from the semestral exam before the day of the examination. For all other reasons for absence, which could not be known beforehand, such application for leave of absence must be submitted within 2 working days from the day of absence. Note: For leave of absence due to illness, only medical certificates issued by medical practitioners registered with the Singapore Medical Council will be accepted. (Exception: Malaysian students residing in JB may submit medical certificates issued in JB.) All other medical certificates, for example, those issued by Chinese physicians, are not accepted.
4. Application for Leave of Absence for personal holiday trips will not be considered.
5. Students are not to assume that their application for leave of absence has been approved, they should check their iChat account for the application status closer to the period applied for. They must check with their respective School should they have any doubts.
6. Where a student is granted leave of absence from the semestral exam, the module shall be removed from the list of modules registered by him for that semester and he shall not be considered to have made one attempt in the examination for that module. The student must attend all classes and sit for all assessments for the module in a subsequent semester in which that module is offered, subject to the maximum number of modules allowed for that stage of study and the constraints of the class time-table.

7. Notwithstanding Paragraph (6) above, a student who is granted leave of absence from the semester examination may apply to the Director of his School to be exempted from attending classes for the subsequent sitting and/or to be allowed to carry forward his past in-course assessed component marks. The application will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
8. A student shall only be granted one deferment for each of the modules that he is taking.

3.7 WITHDRAWAL FROM COURSE

Students intending to withdraw from their course of study must complete a Withdrawal request in PACE Student Portal.

Students are not allowed to withdraw during the official examination period. For any withdrawals received upon the start of and during the conduct of the semestral exam, the student will be considered to have sat for the exam. The withdrawal date will be post-dated to the day semestral results are released.

Student shall settle all outstanding bills with the Polytechnic prior to withdrawal.

The portion of course fee to be refunded is based on when withdrawal notice reaches PACE Office:

Less than 2 weeks before semester commencement	70% refund of course fee
On or after date of semester commencement	No refund

Please note that other fees paid are non-refundable.

3.8 NON-SINGAPOREAN STUDENTS

Non-Singaporeans students must possess a valid Employment Pass / Work Permit / Dependant Pass throughout the course duration. They must write to ptenquiry@sp.edu.sg should they have failed to renew their work pass and they will be administrative withdraw from the course.
