

Chemist, QC Support

Job Summary

This position is responsible for the performance of QC testing for products, including raw materials, in process materials / components and finished goods to ensure meeting defined specifications.

Responsibilities

- Perform testing or task right first time according to SOP and instruction within allocated time.
- Perform general laboratory activities that include, sample management and disposal, housekeeping, preparation of reports/emails/memos for intended audience and checking of chemical inventory.
- Review test result and lab records as per requirements and/or specifications.
- Trend, analyze and monitor key performance indicators, suggest improvements and escalate to supervisor/management as necessary.
- Identify improvement opportunities and lead/support the implementation activities to improve performance and efficiency.
- Meet quality objectives set by management & comply to Alcon, QMS and Safety requirements.
- Conduct systems (Includes LIMS, SAP, MES) and OJT Training based on training matrix.
- Assist basic equipment and method troubleshooting.
- Perform SOP revision / periodical review.