

Secondary Packaging Production Technician

Job Summary

To assist Shift Lead to ensure smooth SP operation in meeting all core functional objectives in accordance to procedures, quality standard, compliance to all regulatory requirement, guidelines in GxP, HSE etc.

Responsibilities

1. To provide operational support for productivity and product quality effectively and efficiently.
2. To be able to perform conversion and simple machine trouble shooting, engage to engineering technical support to ensure good machine performance.
3. Good coordination across functions to ensure getting job done.
4. To ensure good 5S standard and HSE compliance in SP operation
5. To drive and participate on the recovery process of non-routine issues.
6. Drive continuous improvement (Kaizen project) in equipment performance

Key Performance Indicators

- Meet or better the Quality goal in term of No. of NCRs and customer complaints due to human errors.
- Ensure good internal and external audit outcome.
- Maintain efficient operations, meeting target OEE with minimum down time.
- Maintain good housekeeping standards and good practice of 5S.
- Meeting BRFT% target with minimum GDP errors overlook from batch record review.
- Ensure good HSE compliance.
- Ensure the whole team with good self-working discipline.

Job Requirements

- Education: ITE / Higher NITEC in engineering, automation, mechatronics relevant.
- Experience: Minimum 1 years working experience as production technician in high volume manufacturing plant. Prefer with GMP/GDP experience.
- Able to run 12hrs rotation shift
- Require frequent physical movement (not desk-bound)
- Good self-discipline and good team player