Funding Incentives

1. MOE Subsidy

- a) MOE provides generous subsidies for Singapore Citizens (SC) and Singapore Permanent Residents (SPR) to help working Singaporeans to upskill or re-skill through part-time learning at the polytechnics. This includes Part-Time Diploma, Specialist Diploma, Advanced Diploma and Diploma (Conversion) programmes, Earn and Learn Programme, Enhanced PDC and Modular Units.
- b) SC will enjoy subsidy based on the age in the year of enrolment for the modular certificate/post-diploma certificate/modular units.
- c) Under the Enhanced Training Support (ETS) Scheme, small and medium enterprises (SMEs)* will enjoy subsidies of the course fees when they fully sponsor their Singapore Citizen employees for the academic CET programmes.

SMEs are defined as companies with at least 30% local shareholding and Group employment size of not more than 200 employees or Group annual sales turnover of not more than $100 million.*

- d) SPR will enjoy subsidy if he/she has not previously attained a qualification at the diploma or higher level subsidised by the government.

SPRs who transfer or re-admit from a part-time diploma within the same or across polytechnics are eligible for the subsidy covering the funding period, less the number of semesters of subsidy received for the previous courses.

- e) MOE subsidy will not be applicable for students who repeat modules or modular certificates/post diploma certificates.

2. Enhanced Workfare Training Support (WTS) Scheme

With effect from 1 July 2013, Singapore citizen aged 35 years or over and have a monthly income of not more than $2,000 can enjoy 95% subsidy of course fee for a wider range of courses covering all Singapore Workforce Skills Qualifications (WSQ) courses, Academic Continuing Education and Training (CET) courses approved by the Ministry of Education (MOE), as well as Certifiable Skills Training courses accredited or supported by the SkillsFuture Singapore (SSG). You may also be eligible for a training allowance* if you sign up for any WTS qualifying courses on your own without the support of your employer and successfully complete it. In addition, you may receive cash awards* for completing training.

For more information, please visit www.workfare.sg or contact the WTS Hotline at 1800-5368-333.

 Terms and conditions apply.*

3. Absentee Payroll Funding

Companies can claim absentee payroll funding when they sponsor their employees for the academic CET programmes.

For more information, please visit www.skillsconnect.gov.sg

4. UTAP (Union Training Assistance Programme)

NTUC union members enjoy 50% (unfunded) course fee support for up to $250 each year when you enrol for courses supported under UTAP (Union Training Assistance Programme). Conditions apply.

For more information, please call NTUC Membership hotline at 6213 8008 or email UTAP@e2i.com.sg or refer to website (<http://skillsupgrade.ntuc.org.sg>).

Financial Aids

1. MOE Bursary

The MOE Bursary Scheme is open to Singaporean who are pursuing part-time diploma courses at the polytechnics. The bursary quanta are as shown in the table below:

Table: Quanta of the MOE Bursary for Part-Time Diploma Students

Gross Monthly Household Per Capita Income	Quantum
$1,400 or less	$495 per modular credit
$1,401 - $1,900	$250 per modular credit

E.g. Each eligible diploma student whose gross monthly household per capita income (PCI) is $1,400 and below will receive a bursary of $495 per modular credit.

Eligibility criteria:

1. Only subsidised part-time Singaporean students pursuing their first diploma course at the polytechnics are eligible to apply for the bursary
2. Students should have a gross monthly household per capita income (PCI) of <$1,900
3. Students receiving the bursary must not concurrently hold other bursaries or scholarships
4. The bursary is tenable on a semester basis
5. There is no cap on the number of bursaries given out each year.
