

CREATIVE WRITING

Creative writing should be fun – especially since you are writing from your imagination. This hands-on creative writing workshop will give you tips on writing short stories and poems.

Our Objectives

We aim to

- provoke the exercising of your imagination and creativity to come up with for ideas for your writing
- show you how to develop a story sense in you
- provide techniques to create and develop characters, plots, voice and dialogues in your stories
- help you use appropriate language in your descriptions to bring the writing to life
- introduce you to the fundamentals of writing verse
- enhance the editing and re-editing of your writing

Your Profile

Secondary school students who have to do narrative and imaginative writing, or who wish to explore creative writing more fully

Your Results

By the end of this workshop, you would have learned how to

- source for ideas
- plan your writing
- edit your writing
- develop the storyline
- create, introduce and develop the characters in the stories
- write appropriate dialogue for the characters
- create interesting verse

Our Methods

This practical, hands-on workshop will include

- lots of writing exercises
- peer critique of each other's work
- class, peer and facilitator feedback
- a simple creative writing project
