

IMPROVING SPOKEN ENGLISH THROUGH DRAMA

Are the following situations familiar?

You worry about the next presentation you have to make. You tell a joke and it gets a cold response. You trip over words in front of others. If they are, this course ensures you will build up your confidence by improving your spoken English in a fun and enjoyable way.

Our Objectives

We aim to

- facilitate learning of pronunciation techniques through the use of drama games
- deliver the skills of using voice and gestures effectively
- develop confidence and fluency in speaking

Your Profile

This course is suitable for Secondary school students and above who wish to improve their Spoken English in an interactive and creative way

Your Results

At the end of this course, you will learn:

- To enunciate words clearly and effectively to convey your intended message
- To vary pitch and tone to suit different communication contexts
- To use gestures to complement words such that effective communication takes place
- To use dramatic techniques in everyday life

Our Methods

We believe in making the course interactive and fun by using a variety of methods. These include:

- Individual and group work
- Drama Games
- Dramatic Monologues

Our Trainers

Our trainers are all qualified and highly experienced lecturers from Singapore Polytechnic.
